

Society

Miss Ella Wyatt, society editor. If you have news of social events of interest to Columbia and the University, the Missouriian will appreciate it if you will call Miss Wyatt by telephone, No. 224, between 11 o'clock and noon, each day.

Prof. and Mrs. R. A. Kerner, 161, 16th, will receive, with guests, at 4 o'clock, tomorrow afternoon, with a reception for the Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dukes of Louisville, Tenn., and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van of Kansas City. There will be fifty guests.

The University will observe the Thanksgiving holidays. The social calendar is as follows:

Alpha Tau Omega: Thursday evening, the entire members will entertain with a star dance at the Y for the alumni and guests from the University of Kansas.

Lambda Sigma: The members will entertain with a banquet Thursday evening for the alumni. They will entertain Friday evening with a dance at the chapter house.

Phi Kappa Psi: There will be a smoker or supper, arranged for the alumni and Kansas guests. The members will entertain with a buffet luncheon Thursday before the game and will have a star dance party Thursday evening.

Kappa Alpha: The members will entertain Thursday evening with a homecoming banquet for the alumni and guests.

Phi Kappa Alpha: The members will entertain with a banquet Thursday evening for the alumni and out-of-town guests.

Alpha: The members will entertain Thursday with a luncheon for the alumni and will give a homecoming dance Thursday evening.

Sigma Chi: The members will entertain with a banquet Thursday evening. There will be a star dance.

Phi Delta Theta: There will be a homecoming dance Thursday evening followed by a smoker.

Phi Gamma Delta: The members will have a buffet supper tomorrow evening for the alumni and out-of-town guests and will entertain with a homecoming Thanksgiving dinner Thursday evening.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon: The members will entertain with a dinner tomorrow evening for the alumni and will give a buffet luncheon Thursday before the game.

Sigma Phi Epsilon: There will be an informal dance tomorrow evening at the chapter house. They will entertain with a dinner party Thursday evening and Friday evening the members will give a star dinner for the alumni and guests from the University of Kansas.

Miss James Gartin-Collins, secretary, will entertain at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon with a buffet party for Mrs. Henry Dukes of St. Joseph, who is the guest of Mrs. C. B. Miller and for Mrs. Robert Lott of Lott, Mo., who is visiting Mrs. C. C. Bowling. There will be twelve guests.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bowling, Mrs. C. C. Bowling, will entertain at 5 o'clock Friday evening with a dinner party. The guests will be Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McQuinn, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van of Kansas City, Miss Juliet Bowlin, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Deane of Fort Smith, Mo., and Mrs. James M. Carpenter of St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Corbett of St. Louis, Miss Catherine Beck of Webster Groves, Mrs. Charles McGee of Washington, D. C., Mrs. C. B. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Barry Broadhead and Mrs. Charles Fitch of St. Joseph, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Deane of St. Louis, Misses Van Hammet of Knoxville, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dukes of Louisville, Tenn., and Prof. and Mrs. R. A. Kerner, Will C. Bowling, Miss Otis Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jackson of Chicago.

The dinner guests at the Phi Kappa Psi house, Sunday, were: Misses Mary Lee, Emma, Harriette, Sumner, Cornelia, Grapton and Laura, Frances Bowlin.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Kent Catron, Christian College alumni, will entertain tomorrow evening with a buffet dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davidson of Kansas City, who will be their house guests during the Thanksgiving holidays. The guests will be Mr. and Mrs. James Gartin, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dearing, Frank Rolles, Tom Tarkenton, Miss Juliet Bowlin, Miss Catherine Beck of Webster Groves, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bowling, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hall of Exell, Mo., Mrs. Charles McGee, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Corbett of St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Carpenter of St. Louis and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Deane of Fort Smith, Ark.

Judge and Mrs. John Barth of St. Louis will arrive tomorrow to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with Mrs. Victor Barth, 1221 East Broadway.

Miss Virginia McClure will arrive tomorrow to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with Miss Ella Wyatt.

Mrs. Montelle Dietrich and Miss Mary Bagby will be guests at the Phi Nu house this week.

Mr. Alexander Martin, 923 University, entertained the members of the Phi Nu Bridge Club this afternoon at

(Continued on page 4)

LEARN TO DANCE

Private Lessons By Appointment Only

MRS. JAMESON

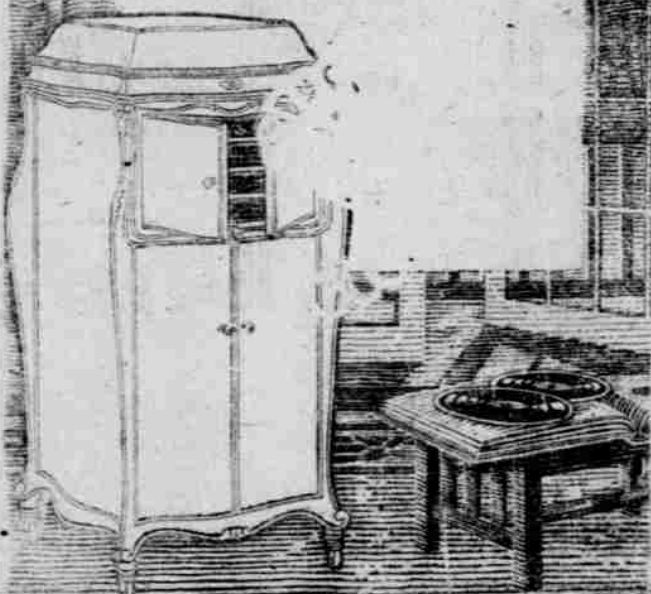

Phone 589

MAKE THIS A REAL THANKSGIVING BY HAVING A

VICTROLA

IN YOUR HOME

STYLES AND PRICES TO SUIT ALL. TERMS IF DESIRED.

Taylor
MUSIC COMPANY

Thanksgiving Week

EXTRA SPECIAL

of

Edwin Clapp Shoes

$11.95

We are offering 250 pairs of Edwin Clapp Shoes including black and brown kid or calf skin, in smart English, round or broad toe lasts, at this extra special price of $11.95

Come in and Let Us Show You These Real Values Other Makes, Special at $5.85, $7, $8.85 and up

Millers

See Our Windows

SALE OF FURNITURE

Sharp Reductions on Dining Room Suites

Blue haze in the sky--turkey browning in the kitchen--guests assembling in the living rooms--and the room of state, the dining room, looking its very best--that is Thanksgiving.

Shall the new suite be the sturdy William and Mary, stately Italian, aristocratic Sheraton? Any of the splendid suites accepted in the circle of artistic furniture may be purchased now at prices of special interest.

Purchase Now

You have long anticipated refurnishing that living or dining room. Do it now before your THANKSGIVING guests arrive. We are offering exceptional inducements by being the leaders in the readjustment of prices.

20% OFF On Anything Purchased This Week

Parlor, Dining Room, Bed Room Suites are included in this reduction sale. Purchase NOW.

We invite your inspection of our line of Oriental and domestic rugs, that we are showing at greatly reduced prices.

PARKER FURNITURE CO.